

Thanks to all Rare Runners who have run with us and for us

RP announcement

Milan, April, 2013. The 13th edition of the Milan City Marathon, the event which took place on Sunday, April 7th, turned off its lights.

We want to thank all Rare Runners who bravely faces the race, thanks to all friends at the booth giving smiles and food, thanks to our personal fundraisers who run their fundraising challenge engaging parents and friends, thanks to those who joined the fundraising race with their donation.

Your participation has been crucial for our project on Thalassemia.

Each Rare Runner has its own name: we want to thank all YOUR names.
